

PLAIN VALUES

Friends of Plain Values and JPV Press,

First and foremost, we hope you and your loved ones are staying healthy. We understand how difficult it can be to feel comfortable right now, so we wanted to share what we are doing at this time.

We are taking things one day at a time because we acknowledge the uncertainty ahead. Yet our main goal remains to offer good news and comfort our readers the best way we know how.

Currently our employees are still working hard to produce our monthly magazine and books. The majority of the team is working remotely but if you need to get a hold of us you can feel free to call the office at 1-844-260-4578. If there is no answer, please leave a message and someone will return your call. You can also touch base with us at reachout@plainvalues.com. We ask that you exercise one of those options and not visit the office for the time being.

We realize this situation remains dynamic so we will provide updates if necessary. As you know, we are all changing our ways of life to help contain and limit the spread of the new Coronavirus. We understand that this is a difficult time around the world, and this goes beyond magazines and books. Our team will do our part and exercise what's being asked of us. In addition, we will continue to be in contact with all of our advertisers to help them through this.

Our team will be keeping all of you in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

God Bless,

Plain Values and JPV Press Teams
